

By Robert Lloyd

The ladies from Dwsin (Dozen) Charity Group in Llanelli are pictured with Ahmed Ali of the Masala restaurant in West End, Llanelli, after their very successful charity curry night in aid of the Wallich Clifford charity which supports the homeless of Llanelli.

The Dwsin Ladies, aided by Mr Ali and his staff, raised £500 for the cause.

Last year, the Dwsin ladies raised more than £6,500 for the Air Ambulance by hosting an extremely well attended and successful black tie charity ball at the Stradey Park Hotel.

The Dwsin group are especially grateful for the continuous and generous donations received from their loyal supporters.